They say that the best positions have been given to the Minth. Eleventh, and Engiteenth Assembly Districts, and that the first two are Enoughtien districts. It is significant, they did, that the Eleventh is Morrissey's district, and the Elighteenth Kelly's. The Tammany Assemblymen and Aldermen are greatly dissatisfied. They think that it is untair to prevent them from see ring places for their consistents. They say that the paironage belongs to the men who worked for the party on election day, and not to Tammany Hall. The Committee on Patronage say that in the division of the should they considered the money value only of the positions, and that by apportioning the positions on the basis of the Democratic vote they have given to each district the same relative amount of patronage.

Church has Done for the World.

Mr. Beocher talked last night in his Friday evening lecture to thirteen hundred persons, who filled every inch of room. Brother Davenport prayed that grace, mercy, and peace be multiplied to all the church, and Dr. Edward Beccher in his petition said: "O Lord, we need not mention to Thee the trial to which our bastor is exposed, but we would in the exercise of our faith, our love, and our assurance commend him to Thy sympathy and love. Strengthen and sustain him, enable him to stand as no other created thing. Carry him through this trial in such a way as will be to his honor and giory, and to the glory of the church. O God, make his yindication as clear as the sun in the heavens."

Mr. Beecher leaned forward in his seat, his face solemb, and his manner full of exprestness.
